Large Islamic Floor Lamp Made Of Three Metals

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 40cm au chapeau

Height : 156cm

Description

A large and very interesting 19th-century "mosque" floor lamp made of three metals--yellow copper, red copper, and featuring numerous silver calligraphic inlays. Probably of Syrian origin.This floor lamp has been carefully electrified while preserving its alcohol reservoir to maintain its full authenticity. In perfect condition. Originally, the base of the lampshade was likely adorned with a string of opal-colored beads.
