18th-century Walnut Statue Depicting Saint Margaret

2 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Wallnut

Width : socle 13,5 cm.

Height : 50cm

Depth : socle 10 cm.

Description

An early 18th-century walnut statue depicting Saint Margaret of Antioch. A bit of history! Her life, martyrdom, legend, and prayers.Saint Margaret, or Saint Marine in the Eastern Church, was born in Antioch of Pisidia (in present-day Turkey) in the 3rd century to a pagan family. The patron saint of pregnant women or those about to give birth, Saint Margaret is an example of resilience, courage, and trust in Christ. Filled with love for the Savior, she never abandoned Him and never denied her faith, even during her martyrdom. Saint Margaret is a model of holiness.

Dealer

Antiquités Aubry Joel
Antiquaire Généraliste
Mobile : 06 08 64 80 06

SAINTE MENEHOULD 51 800