Description

A minimalist lacquered wooden vase, crafted using the Tsugaru technique, containing a copper otoshi (container) to collect water from the floral arrangement. The marbled and veined pattern is achieved by applying several layers of lacquer in different colors over a deliberately textured or pitted surface, then patiently sanding it down to reveal the underlying layers. This technique is emblematic of the Tsugaru region (Aomori Prefecture). Signature on the box: Okamura Kinsei (created by Okamura). Japan, circa 1970, 34.5 x 26 cm - Opening 14.5 cm. With its original box signed by the artist.
