Description

Refined and unique small table, finely crafted from solid walnut, veneered in cherry wood, and embellished with inlays of various fruitwoods. The table features the truncated pyramidal legs characteristic of the period and a slightly oval top. The top is hinged and opens in two, revealing internal compartments and ergonomic spaces designed for storing items--a testament to its original function as a work table. Its great sophistication is showcased through the intricate inlays adorning both the top and the apron; these feature geometric patterns alternating different types of wood, with medallions centered on each of the four sides. Furthermore, the top is enriched by an extraordinary figurative scene depicting two figures: one, in the upper section, is shown hunting birds, while the other, in the lower section, is engrossed in fishing, surrounded by trees. This piece, of undeniable taste and elegance, adds a touch of class and historic charm to any setting. Of Northern Italian origin, dating to the Neoclassical period, circa the second half of the 18th century.
