Description

Seated Hunter, Dogon styleThis African sculpture is carved from a single piece of hardwood and features a dark patina.A wooden crossbar connects the pegs to the base, ensuring the structural stability of the piece; carved motifs, reminiscent of ropes, surround both ankles.The figure is dressed in a simple tunic, hand-sewn from coarsely woven cotton, accented with red topstitching along the seams.The figure is depicted in a characteristic, contemplative seated posture: the knees are drawn up, and the arms rest on them.12.5 cm wide, 14 cm deep, and 24 cm tall.Tribal art from Mali, 20th century.
