Description

A charming little Louis XV-style alcove sofa from the 18th century, made of re-lacquered wood. Its scalloped-shaped backrest features cuffed armrests resting on whip-curved consoles; the seat, with its scalloped crossbars, rests on five beautifully curved legs. The entire piece is adorned with a delicate design of carved flowers and foliage. The traditional upholstery has been restored and covered with linen fabric.Good condition; an original wooden reinforcement at the top of the upper backrest crossbar is visible in the photos; the lacquer has a beautiful patina (with touch-ups, imperfections, and missing areas)We ship worldwide; please contact us for a shipping quote.
