Description

Elegant Empire breakfast table or pedestal table in solid mahogany, 19th century. Circular in shape, its tilting top rests on two columns and a central pivoting lyre resting on a crosspiece carried by curved legs ending in lion paws on casters. Inspired by the winegrower's tables of the southwest of France, this pedestal table is of great refinement both by the purity of its lines and by the details of its construction. Due to its stability, it can be used as a pedestal table but also as a dining table ...Good condition, waxed filled finish.We deliver worldwide, please contact us for a delivery quote.
