Description

A very beautiful Art Nouveau crystal vase with Japanese-style decoration on the 4 side, circa 1880.Quadrangular in shape and made of clear crystal, it is adorned with a polychrome hot-enamel decoration with gold highlights depicting a fan, a bird, and cherry blossom branches.Attributed to Baccarat, unsigned. (The crystal manufacturer began signing its pieces in 1936.)In the wake of the 1878 World's Fair, Baccarat produced numerous pieces with Japanese-inspired decoration, specifically adorned with a fan (see photo no. 7 from the book Le génie verrier de l'Europe by Giuseppe Cappa).The combination of heavy, clear crystal--such as that of our vase--with gold fillets at the neck and base, along with polychrome enamel decorations in relief, is quite
