Description

An elegant 19th-century solid silver coffee cup and saucer, featuring a rich, finely engraved design of geometric and floral motifs.The flared cup rests on a molded foot and features a slender, coiled handle, ending in small curved motifs.The body is adorned with a delicate guilloché pattern, composed of fine horizontal lines punctuated by small circular motifs, framed by decorative friezes. On the front, an oval medallion surrounded by leafy and floral scrollwork features an interlaced monogram.The saucer harmoniously echoes the cup's design, featuring concentric guilloché work, geometric friezes, and an identical monogrammed medallion, reflecting the care taken in crafting this set.The set displays elegant silversmithing, characteristic of French productions from the second half of the 19th
