Description

A bronze sculpture of great power. The artist was active in the Netherlands as well as in Belgium. Johannes Wilhelmus Jacobus Schouteten (often called Willem Schouteten) was a Dutch sculptor. Born on December 20, 1859, in Borgharen (near Maastricht, Netherlands). He died in December 1927 in The Hague(Netherlands). He worked primarily in Belgium (the Antwerp region) and settled in The Hague around 1914. He trained his children, Felix Schouteten (1898-1990) andElisa Schouteten in sculpture. He created naturalistic sculptures, notably animal bronzes and figurative groups, often signed "W. Schouteten."
