Description

Each coffee table features a rectangular structure combining gilt brass frames and cylindrical uprights in brushed steel, surmounted by small finials and ending in tapered feet. The clear glass upper top overhangs a lower shelf in oxidised mirror with cloudy nuances, of the finest decorative effect. The contrast of the two metals elegantly rhythms the composition.This marriage of steel and brass, like the use of aged mirror, is characteristic of the productions of Maison Jansen of the 1970s, the great Parisian decorating house founded in 1880, whose pared-down Neoclassical furniture remains a safe value on the market.Condition report: Good overall condition. Metals with a fine even patina, glass that may show likely micro-scratches, lower mirrors with the intended decorative oxidation. A rare and
