Large white glazed ceramic pitcher by Roger CAPRON (1922-2006) in Vallauris, with an incised design of black lines and foliage.Very good conditionHeight: 36 cmSigned on the bottom "Capron Vallauris" and numbered "A 40"CAPRON Roger (1922-2006)A professor of applied arts, Capron was initially interested in drawing. He discovered ceramics in Vallauris before Picasso did and co-founded the Callis studio with Robert Picault. He established his own studio in 1952 and sold his collections, notably in the United States at Saks Fifth Avenue. He received awards at numerous international exhibitions in Milan, Brussels, Cannes, and elsewhere. Beginning in 1963, he gradually shifted away from sculptural pieces toward decorative tiles used in architecture: wall panels,
