Description

Elegant and unique small cabinet, in carved red fir and finely painted in shades of white and sage green, featuring its original period paintwork. The cabinet rests on bracket feet and is topped by a molded cornice; it has two doors secured by a lost-wax cast bronze lock. The interior contains three well-proportioned shelves, ideal for storage. Its exceptional refinement is further enhanced by the painted decoration across the front and sides, which incorporates geometric patterns and paneled motifs, embellished with floral and geometric ornamentation. This is a piece of great taste and elegance, capable of adding a touch of class and antiquity to any
