Description

Rare "Mystery Clock of Love" - Gilded bronze and white marble mantelpiece set - Napoleon III period, 19th centuryAn elegant and original mystery clock, forming a three-piece mantelpiece set, comprising a central clock accompanied by two two-light candelabra.The clock features a remarkable composition depicting a Cupid in gilded bronze holding aloft a black sphere that serves as the clock face, adorned with gilded Roman numerals and delicately crafted hands.This ingenious composition, in the spirit of so-called "mystery" clocks, plays on the illusion of a clock globe being lightly supported by a putto.The piece rests on an elegant white marble base, embellished with finely chiseled bronze elements featuring floral garlands, foliage, and scrollwork.Two matching candelabras, with white
