PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Pair Of Victorian "apostles" Silver Spoons, London, 1886

250 EUR

Signature : Thomas Smily

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 8,5 cm

Description

An elegant pair of late Victorian sterling silver apostle serving spoons, attributed to the workshop of Thomas Smily and assayed in London in 1886. Presented in their original fitted presentation case.Design & Craftsmanship: Crafted in the 17th-century Continental revival style popular in Victorian England. Each spoon features a classic oval bowl with remnants of original gilt, an ornate cast lower stem, a finely spiraled barley-twist handle, and a detailed cast apostle finial standing on a hexagonal pedestal.Hallmarks: Clearly hallmarked on the reverse of the bowls for London, 1886 (Leopard's head, Lion Passant for .925 sterling silver, date letter "L", and Queen Victoria duty mark), alongside the maker's/sponsor's mark "TS" (attributed to the workshop of Thomas

Dealer

All Centuries
Argenterie
Tel : +37258323965

Tartu mnt 84A
Tallinn 10128

Smily).Total Weight: 88 g