Description

An impressive Austrian Art Nouveau (Jugendstil) figural vase designed by sculptor J. Louger for the renowned Friedrich Goldscheider manufactory in Vienna, circa 1900.The elongated columnar body is flanked by gracefully sculpted female maidens in flowing robes, their arms raised to support the bulbous upper basin.Delicate, organic vine and floral reliefs entwine the central shaft, seamlessly merging into a flared, earthy dark-brown bulbous base.Finished in Goldscheider's signature muted matte and satin glazes in soft tones of cream, warm ochre, blush, and deep umber.Incised artist signature "Louger" on the lower body.
