Description

An antique farmhouse table with authentic charm, featuring a lovely natural wood tone and a magnificent patina.This table features a beautiful, generously sized tabletop made of wide planks, revealing the wood grain, knots, and signs of age that give antique furniture its unique character.It rests on four elegant turned legs, lending a sense of finesse and lightness to its silhouette, despite its generous proportions.Its traditional structure, assembled with dowels, attests to the craftsmanship of carpenters of yesteryear.It also features a drawer along the base--a detail that is both practical and charming.The wood has retained its natural appearance, with its warm tones, irregularities, and signs of wear that are characteristic of its age.At 2 meters long, this beautiful farmhouse table offers a generous
