Pair Of Louis XIV-era Wall Sconces

3 100 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Bronze

Description

A pair of chiseled and gilded bronze wall sconces featuring a sinuous, leaf-adorned arm. They display a rich decorative design centered around a mascaron, set above a lambrequin-style drape. The upper face of the sconce features a stylized sun with rays and a central flower. Acanthus leaves, cascading bells, and gadroons on the lampshade are complemented by a scalloped cutout, characteristic of this period.
