Description

A superb and elegant bronze sculpture titled "Labretonne au Gui," created by the sculptor Georges DEMANGE (1865-1945), a French sculptor of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, known for his decorative sculptures in the Art Nouveau style. It depicts the bust of a young Breton girl wearing a traditional dress and headdress, along with a cross necklace. It is adorned with a branch of mistletoe and berries at the base. A work of exceptional quality with a superb bronze patina, the piece is signed on the side, numbered, and bears the foundry's stamp.
