Description

A large oil-on-canvas painting depicting elegant figures in costume (Costumbrismo) strolling in a boat off the coast, where various dwellings--including a castle--can be seen. On board, we see a helmsman steering the boat, a lovely couple chatting, two young singers, and a bard playing music. It bears a signature in the lower left corner where part of the artist's name can be made out: José Rodrig...(José María Rodríguez de Losada)? and the date: 80 (for 1880). This painting is remarkable for its rendering of the faces and the romantic atmosphere it conveys.
