Description

PAUL BUTTI (1924-2004)Untitled, February 1987Mixed media on canvas, signed at the top and dated February 1987.117 × 89 cm.A large abstract composition, this work by Paul Butti captivates with its chromatic intensity and the remarkable freedom of its execution.Through a play of free-form shapes and broad strokes of paint, the artist creates a dialogue between deep greens, luminous yellows, fiery reds, and shades of blue. Layers, impasto, and sweeping brushstrokes structure the composition in a dynamic balance, where the colors seem to intertwine and respond to one another.
