Description

Bronze sculpture with a brown patina and a green-tinged medal - C. MICHEL - 19th centuryAn elegant sculpture depicting a nude young woman with flowing hair in a graceful and sensual pose, one arm raised above her head, accompanied by a majestic bird with outstretched wings, evoking a mythological composition centered on Leda and the swan.The female figure is distinguished by the finesse of her modeling, the harmony of her proportions, and the delicacy of her expression.The piece rests on a naturalistic base with a green patina, creating an elegant contrast with the brown patina of the body.Signed "C. MICHEL" on the base.Art Nouveau style, late 19th-early 20th century.Dimensions:* Height: 85 cm* Width: 30 cm
