Description

Oil on canvas by Jean Thieulin (1894-1960) depicting a woman walking on the hills above a Norman village. Signed in the lower right corner. Montparnasse frame. Dimensions: 50 x 65 cm; with frame: 69 x 84.5 cm Thieulin was born in Rouen in 1894. After working as a journalist in Paris, he returned home in 1913 and enrolled at the École des Beaux-Arts. There he met Le Trividic, Dunet, and Bordes. Thieulin began exhibiting as early as 1916 and then at the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Rouen in 1918, at the age of just 24. His body of work, though limited, is nonetheless of high quality. Presented here is an unusual view, as the artist preferred to stay in Rouen to find inspiration. The painting depicts a woman walking alone on the hillside of a village. The scene is very bright and draws the viewer's
