Description

A large, circular plate made of Murano blown glass in a deep ruby color, decorated in white enamel with motifs inspired by the exquisite lace of Burano and featuring, in the center, a exquisite depiction of St. Mark's Basilica in Venice.This piece stands out for the extreme finesse of its craftsmanship: latticework, arabesques, floral garlands, and openwork motifs cover the entire surface through refined white enamel decoration, creating a striking contrast with the ruby-red background.Condition: Very good. No cracks or chips were found. The enamel decoration is well preserved.
