PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Still Life With A Viola, A Die, And Playing Cards By Gabriel Bougrain (1915-1998).

1 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Prévoir restauration

Material : Oil painting

Length : 81 cm.

Width : 59 cm.

Description

Information:School: French.Movement: classical style leaning toward expressionism.Date of creation: 1947, noted on the back of the stretcher.Location: None.Medium: Oil on canvas.Technique: Brush.Signature: Located in the upper left corner of the work.Gabriel Bougrain studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris.He won the Abd-el-Tif Prize in 1950.He exhibited in North Africa and France.Some of his works are held in French public collections.Quality work by a minor master perfectly mastering the codes of perspective and also offering a personal vision of reality, construction by color and matter, and a certain freedom from academic representation.Condition:The work has a few tears along the stretcher frame and at the edges

Dealer

Le Mont des Arts

Tableaux modernes et contemporains / Arts décoratifs du XXième

Mobile : 0652701522

10, chemin stratégique

Dommartemont 54130

and would require minor restoration involving the application of tension strips.Cleaning would also be entirely feasible, although the work has a patina that allows for a perfectly satisfactory interpretation.Galerie Le Mont des Arts only very rarely intervenes on works requiring restoration, in order to ensure complete transparency regarding the piece offered to its future clients, who are always keen to have their usual restorers handle the work.A video of the artwork can be sent upon request.Provenance:-Private collection, Strasbourg, France.-Galerie Le Mont des Arts, Dommartemont, France.A summary estimate of the costs associated with packing the artwork in a museum-grade wooden crate and professional shipping will be provided upon request.Worldwide shipping available.