Description

A Louis XV-style coffee table made of native wood marquetry. Resting on four curved legs topped with gilded bronze feet, the curved body on all sides features a drawer on the front with a pull handle. The scalloped tabletop echoes the curves of the frame and is entirely inlaid with a bouquet of flowers. A wooden molding forms a small rim.19th-century Parisian craftsmanship; the marquetry is in excellent condition on a solid oak frame. Original buffed varnish finish.
