Pair Of Cloisonné Enamel Vases With Openwork Bronze Mounts, Late 19th Century

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Cloisonne

Height : 20 cm

Description

A pair of vases with bulging bodies and flared necks, decorated with polychrome cloisonné enamel. Large pink and white peonies, yellow flowers, and green foliage stand out against the turquoise-blue central band. Friezes of deep blue, black, and reddish-brown foliage patterns frame this design, while stylized fleurons accentuate the neck and the lower part of the body.The Asian-inspired bronze mounts consist of an openwork, scalloped border at the neck and a tripod base with Greek fret motifs, ending in volute feet. The golden hue of the bronze brings out the blues of the cloisonné.Period - Late 19th century, in the style of mounted objects popular during the reign of Napoleon III.Height:20 cm each, including the mount.Condition - Very good presentation condition, with slight signs of wear
