Description

A late 19th-century terracotta bust depicting a portrait of Countess Du Barry, based on a work by Augustin PAJOU. A typical piece by Friedrich GOLDSCHEIDER, an Austrian entrepreneur born in Bohemia who was a manufacturer of ceramics and bronze.He died on January 19, 1897, in Nice; his widow, Regina, and his brother, Alois, managed the company, while his sons, Walter and Marcel, oversaw production and the factories.The bust has a beautiful patina with slightly faded markings.The base has chips.
