Description

VIDAL Gustave (1895-1966)"Lavender Field in Provence" Oil on panel,Signed lower right,A beautiful work by the painter Gustave Vidal depicting a field of blooming lavender in Provence, most likely in the Alpilles or the Vaucluse countryside, where the artist loved to set up his easel. In the foreground, we see a field of blooming lavender, a symbol of Provence. The middle ground offers a view of a Provençal farmhouse. The artist has perfectly captured the various shades of color and the play of light on a day in Provence. He studied at the Avignon School of Fine Arts under the guidance of painter Pierre Grivolas, who encouraged his students--including Gustave Vidal--to paint outdoors. He was influenced by the New School of Avignon and abstract painters.His distinctive
