Description

A painted and gilded wooden statue or wall sconce depicting a saint. This evangelist holds a book in his right hand. His left arm appears to be pointing or gesturing, while his gaze follows the direction of his hand. Our saint has a beard and flowing hair. The folds of his clothing are beautifully rendered. The back is hollow, and, as is often the case, three fingers are missing from his left hand. Some chips in the paint are visible in the photos.
