18th-century Wrought-iron Toaster, Folk Art, France

120 EUR

Period : 18th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Wrought iron
Length : 35,2 cm
Width : 14,4 cm
Height : 9,8 cm

Description

18th-century wrought-iron toaster, T-shaped.It consists of two vertical, parallel arches connected at the base by a crossbar welded to the rear arch, thus forming two legs.The partially twisted handle is riveted to the rear arch (slight play), features a small riveted foot, and ends with a ring.Beautiful patina, good condition.Weight: 400 g

Dealer

Les Couloirs du Temps - Samuel Collin
Folk Art and Popular Traditions, Regionalism, Curiosity
Tel : 06 81 53 21 70
Mobile : 06 70 45 88 65

Impasse des Ventes
Mézières-en-Drouais 28500