Desk Set, Complete Office Set By B. Wicker And Téniers, Late 19th Century

780 EUR

Signature : Bernard Wicker et Téniers

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Length : 40

Width : 31

Description

Desk set adorned with chased silver-plated metal plaques signed by the engraver Bernard Wicker, in burgundy leather and rosewoodThe set includes four matching pieces: a large burgundy leather desk pad with a flap, adorned with four silver-plated metal spandrels featuring scenes of romance: "The First Pair of Pants," "The Betrothal," "The Morning of the Wedding," and "The New Apron"; a three-compartment letter organizer on a molded base of solid rosewood, adorned with an engraved plaque reading "La danse improvisée"; a perpetual calendar (with functional day, date, and month displays) featuring stylized Art Nouveau floral motifs surrounding the scene "Les crêpes"; a blotter stamp illustrated with "The Village Festival" after Téniers.In very good original condition overall.

Dealer

Vidal Antiquaires
antique dealer, trade welcome,english spoken- habla Espagnol
Tel : 03 23 81 10 97
Mobile : 06 07 98 54 79
Fax : vidalantiquaires@live.fr

16, rue du Général Foy
ham 80400

Authentic patina of age (minimal wear on the upper edge of the letter holder).Dimensions: closed desk pad 40 x 31 cm, calendar 14 x 22 cm, binder (H x W x D) 17 x 13 x 26 cm, blotter holder 14 x 8 x 5 cm.Dated to the late 19th or very early 20th century.