Description

Dimensions: Ø 30 cm - H: 35 cm. Pair of vintage three-legged solid wood stools, dating from the 1950s-1960s. With their clean lines, sturdy legs, and exposed mortise-and-tenon joints on the seat, these stools are iconic examples of the Brutalist style and the "chalet" aesthetic (reminiscent of the work of Charlotte Perriand or the Artisans de Marolles).The wood features a superb, warm, and authentic patina, reflecting the stools' history and authenticity.Versatile furniture:very stable and decorative, these stools blend easily into a contemporary, rustic, or wabi-sabi interior. They can be used as:o Additional seating around a coffee table.o Unique and charming nightstands on either side of a bed.o Side tables next to a sofa or plant stands.
