Description

A stunning Art Nouveau-style planter or decorative bowl, dating from the mid-20th century. Crafted from solid gilded brass, this piece captivates with the elegance of its curved hexagonal silhouette and its delicately scalloped upper rim. The corners are embellished with fine scroll motifs in slight relief. The piece rests on four discreet small ball-shaped feet and is flanked by two side handles in the shape of volutes with a fluid and balanced design. A versatile piece with authentic charm, ideal as a tabletop planter for small plants or floral arrangements, as a centerpiece, or even as a distinctive trinket dish in an entryway.Weight: 670 grams
