Description

Inspired by Japanese art, rare and original in both form and decoration, this small planters is a creation by Charles Hubert Brannam (1855-1937), founder of the Brannam Art Pottery in 1879 in Barnstaple, England.The three sides, shaped like an open fan, are decorated in the Japanese-inspired style that was in vogue from the late 19th century onward: cherry and plum blossoms glazed in relief, a wisteria branch, on a crackled background with a stylized landscape. The legs symbolize the fan's handles. Marked with interlaced, recessed "C H." In perfect condition!- On display in our 400 m² gallery in Lille, open Wednesday through Friday afternoons or by appointment
