Description

A true masterpiece of Bolognese cabinetmakingFirst and foremost, this extraordinary original 17th-century walnut "fratino" table stands as a rare testament to Italian master craftsmanship. Furthermore, its splendid original patina conveys an authentic poignancy and a magnetic charm that only the passage of centuries can bestow. Moreover, the beauty of this piece lies in the purity of its curved lines and the warm hue of the solid wood. Moreover, the piece comes from a prominent country house located in the hills of Bologna, a historical detail that further enhances its prestige. Additionally, its compact dimensions of 116x60xH78 cm make it extremely versatile for any modern or classic setting.Superior Quality and ConditionCertainly, those seeking excellence in antiques will
