Description

This unique frame, made of ebony veneer on an oak base and accented along its flat edge with brass trim, features corners adorned with a geometric pattern inspired by Moorish motifs.Whether for an old photograph, a work on paper, a drawing, or a painting, it will make any subject stand out.Its technique is reminiscent of "Boulle" marquetry from the time of Louis XIV, whose furniture was reproduced in large quantities during the reign of Napoleon III. (The product photo illustrates a possible framing option and does not depict any other item for sale besides the frame described in the title. External dimensions: 46.5 x 36 cm) View: 34 x 23 cm Frame width: 6.2 cm
