Large Porcelain Clock From Sitzendorf With Its Base - The Four Seasons, Germany, Thur

1 050 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 60

Description

Large porcelain clock from Sitzendorf - The Four Seasons - Based on a Meissen designGermany, Thuringia, Sitzendorf, 20th century.A magnificent and imposing polychrome porcelain mantel clock from the Sitzendorf manufactory, accompanied by its matching original base.Crafted in the Rococo style, based on a Meissen model, this richly sculpted composition features allegories of the four seasons, represented by four putti bearing their symbolic attributes: a fur-lined cloak and a brazier for winter, a sickle and a sheaf of wheat for summer, flowers and a floral wreath for spring, and a cup of wine for fall.The gracefully curved body rests on three volute feet and features sumptuous relief decoration of rocaille motifs, flowers, and foliage, entirely hand-painted in a rich polychrome

Dealer

Inewera antique Antiquités
Mobile : +48575485047

Ignacego Paderewskiego 7
Szreniawa 62052

palette, enhanced with gilding and delicate shades of pink.The circular dial, set against a pale yellow background, is surrounded by a gilded bezel and features Arabic numerals and gilded hands.The clock rests on a separate trapezoidal base, richly decorated with floral motifs and gilding.Mark of the Sitzendorf manufactory.Dimensions:Height of the clock: 50 cmHeight of the base: 10 cmDimensions: 36 × 22 cmTotal height: approximately 60 cmCondition: Minor chips and restorations. Mechanism housing slightly loose.A remarkable, large decorative piece, particularly appealing for the richness of its floral decoration and the delicacy of its allegorical figures.