Description

A Boukhara rug of Russian origin, featuring the traditional decorative style of Central Asian rugs, which are particularly prized for their repetitive patterns, graphic elegance, and distinctively Eastern character.This piece stands out for its unusual elongated format of 293 × 86 cm, a size particularly well-suited for high-traffic areas and hallways. This specific size allows the rug to stand out in spaces where standard dimensions are often ill-suited, while providing a striking decorative presence.Bukhara rugs are prized for their traditional aesthetic, rich ornamentation, and ability to blend seamlessly into both classic interiors and more contemporary settings. Their distinctive design brings rhythm, depth, and warmth to a space, while maintaining a timeless elegance.Thanks to its length and modest width,
