Description

A small, functional, circular basin made of breccia marble, predominantly grayish-beige with pink veins. It appears to be a very shallow mortar for grinding spices or pigments (specifically, pigments used to prepare paints for easel painters...) or possibly a mold used in culinary preparations...Made in Southern Europe--Italy or Spain--dating from the 18th/19th century.A striking object with timeless lines, in good, well-used condition with a very attractive patina.Note: Shipping to France is available via Colissimo with tracking and insured delivery requiring a signature: 40 euros. Shipping to other destinations available upon request.
