Description

A small Hereke rug from Turkey, made entirely of silk, showcasing the refinement and delicacy of the Turkish textile tradition. Hereke rugs are renowned for the quality of their craftsmanship, their exceptionally fine weave, and the care taken in creating pieces that are often quite small in size.The silk gives this rug a particularly fine, supple, and lustrous texture, revealing subtle shimmer depending on the angle of the light. The quality of this material, combined with the precision of the craftsmanship, makes Hereke rugs highly sought-after for their elegance and precious character.Measuring 118 × 73 cm, this rug is the ideal size to highlight a small area, enhance a decorative space, or complement a collection of Oriental rugs. It will naturally fit into both a classic interior and a more
