Description

A small Hereke rug from Turkey, made entirely of silk, showcasing the refinement of the Ottoman textile tradition and the reputation of these pieces for their delicacy and the quality of their craftsmanship.Hereke rugs are particularly prized for the delicacy of their weave, the precision of their craftsmanship, and the nobility of the materials used. The silk gives them a fine, supple texture, accompanied by subtle sheens that vary with the light and highlight their precious character.Measuring 90 × 60 cm, this rug is the ideal size for a small decorative space, to accent a piece of furniture, enhance a room, or complement a collection of oriental silk rugs. Its size allows it to fit easily into a variety of settings, whether classic or contemporary.A piece of Turkish tradition, captivating for the fineness
