Description

Antique Kashan rug from Iran, made of wool, hailing from one of the great traditions of Persian rugs, renowned for the richness of its decorative repertoire and the quality of its craftsmanship. The city of Kashan holds a major historical place in the art of Iranian carpet-making, with carpets prized for their elegance, balance, and the diversity of their designs.This piece follows in the tradition of antique Persian carpets, whose charm lies as much in their artisanal craftsmanship as in their ability to stand the test of time without losing their decorative appeal. Wool is a warm, natural material, particularly prized for its presence, its texture, and its ability to add character to an interior.Measuring 168 × 106 cm, this Kashan rug is an easy-to-integrate size for various spaces. It can be placed in an entryway, at
