Three 18th-century Louis XVI-style Chairs, Circa 1780. Provenance: Consul Henry Dunker.

2 780 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 52

Height : 92

Description

Three 18th-century Louis XVI-style chairs, circa 1780. Provenance: Consul Henry Dunker.These chairs feature sinuously curved backs and seats, as well as straight baluster legs topped with balls. The seats are adorned with rosettes at the corners and in the center, while the backs are arched and carved with small flowers in the center.They are fully upholstered, both on the backs and the seats.Construction: stained solid beech, richly carved. Very sturdy chairs.Made in France, second half of the 18th century. Provenance: Consul Henry Dunker.Condition: very good following professional restoration.Dimensions: seat height approx. 45 cm, backrest height approx. 92 cm, width 52 cm.Don't miss out!

Dealer

Antiques and Art-Lion

Sale of antiques, furniture, clocks, paintings

Mobile : +48608466740

12 Marca 211

Wejherowo 84-200