Description

Inspired by the wonders of the Victorian era, this 750 gold (18-karat) snake ring is an ode to eternal love--for in the language of antique jewelry, the serpent coiled around the finger becomes one with the wearer.Its body, entirely chiseled with hand-engraved scales--whose pattern grows finer toward the tapered tail--hugs the finger with a supple, sensual curve. The head, slightly raised, is set with three antique-cut diamonds: a central "old mine" cut diamond with a soft, warm luster, flanked by two smaller stones that watch like eyes. Each stone is set in a closed white metal setting that creates a striking contrast with the warmth of the yellow gold.A piece steeped in history and full of character, to be worn alone as a statement piece or stacked with other rings for a bolder look.Features:- Metal: 750 yellow gold (18
