Inspired by the neoclassical style, this 1980s column on a pedestal captivates with its architectural form, reminiscent of an Ionic capital.Its structure is clad in thin slabs of polished travertine, arranged in a mosaic pattern in shades of cream and accented by a brass border that highlights the elegant curve of its volutes.Both sculptural and timeless, this piece lends a refined, graphic presence to an entryway, living room, or gallery, and is an ideal choice for showcasing a work of art or a lamp.Normal wear and tear given its age and use: see photos
