Description

An exceptional set consisting of two identical walnut console tables in the Rococo style, of Venetian origin, dating from approximately 1770-1800.These console tables rest on richly carved "S"-shaped legs; their crossbars are adorned with delicate floral motifs. The tops of the legs are also decorated with hand-carved leaf and shell motifs. Each console table is topped with a wooden tabletop painted to imitate marble, likely added at a later date.The console tables are sold exclusively as a set and are in good condition, consistent with their age.As is to be expected, they show signs of wear consistent with their age.Dimensions: (in cm)Width: 128 cmDepth: 55 cmHeight: 87 cm
