Description

First Empire period - Early 19th centuryFranceA beautiful set of 16.90 linear meters (14.5 cm high) of First Empire wall borders for decoration, cataloged by the Musée de la Toile de Jouy, inv. 976.1.35, a gift from Baroness Mallet.
Woodblock-printed cotton featuring neoclassical frieze motifs adorned with pine cones, in a soot-brown color on a yellow-ochre background. The production of wall borders was an essential element of the decoration of castles and manor houses during the first half of the 19th century. They framed large draperies above the wood paneling. There are 9.70 meters in excellent condition and 7.13 meters with areas of discoloration. 820 euros for the set.
