Description

An original circus poster from Belgium, printed in the 1950s by Ets. Léon Beyaert-Sioen in Kortrijk. This famous Flemish printing house supplied posters to travelling circuses all over Europe, and its expressive clown portraits are among the most sought-after circus posters today.The poster shows a cheerful clown with a red pointed hat, tufts of yellow hair, a big red nose and a broad smile, giving the viewer a playful wink. He wears a yellow ruff and a colourful checked jacket in green, yellow and red. The portrait stands on a light blue background, framed by a red border with yellow stars, and the printer's name is printed at the bottom.The poster is printed on paper in vivid red, blue, yellow and green, in the detailed, painterly style that made the Beyaert-Sioen clowns so popular.
