Musketeer Of King Louis XVIII

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

Jean-Benjamin De BoutironPastel, Restoration periodA beautiful pastel portrait depicting Jean-Benjamin de Boutiron (1796-1823), a cavalry officer during the Restoration and a former musketeer of King Louis XVIII.A Royal Volunteer from Bordeaux from May to November 1814, he joined the King's Musketeers in December 1814.Appointed cavalry lieutenant in 1816, he was made a Knight of the Royal Order of the Legion of Honor in 1817.He died prematurely in Spain in 1823, at the age of 26.The portrait is preserved in its original gilded wooden frame, which has never been removed, along with an old handwritten annotation on the reverse identifying the subject and detailing his military career--military archives held at the Historical Service of the Ministry of Defense in

Dealer

Collection
Rare & Unusual Objects
Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

Vincennes (reference number 2 Ye 523/8).Genealogical research on the Boutiron family also reveals possible kinship ties to the Jacquelot family through collateral branches.Technique: PastelPeriod: First quarter of the 19th century, Restoration periodCondition: Good conditionDimensions:With frame: 49 × 42 cmWithout frame: 40 × 32 cm